

Claims

What is claimed is:

1. The lamination apparatus to form lamination layers of laminate film pasted on the surfaces of 5 printed matter as posters, advertising fliers, computer
output media or so, containing the shaft to support the core roll with films wound around, wherein said shaft having a groove on the cylindrical surface along the axial direction where a flexible tube of soft vinyl or 10 so is set with both ends fixed by fittings.

2. The lamination apparatus to form lamination
layers of laminate film pasted on the surfaces of 15 printed matter as posters, advertising fliers, computer
output media or so, containing the shaft to support the
core roll with films wound around, wherein said shaft
having a groove on the cylindrical surface along the
axial direction where a flexible tube of soft vinyl or so is set with a bar inserted in and both ends of the 20 bar fixed by fittings.

25

30

35

Express Mail #EL77810797505